U.S. Department of Labor's Compliance Assistance Tools

elaws Advisors

www.dol.gov/elaws

The elaws Advisors (Employment Laws Assistance for Workers and Small Businesses) are Web-based, interactive tools that help individuals understand federal employment laws. Each elaws Advisor mimics the interaction an individual would have with a DOL employment law expert by asking the appropriate questions and then providing answers based on the individual's responses.

Toll-Free Information Service

1-866-4-USA-DOL (TTY: 1-877-889-5627)

The Toll-Free Information Service is a central access point to information on a range of employment rules and issues. By calling 1-866-4-USA-DOL, individuals can find answers to questions about job loss, business closures, pay and leave, workplace safety and health, pension and health benefits, and reemployment rights for Veterans, National Guard members and Reservists.

Department of Labor Web Site

www.dol.gov

DOL's principal Web site provides America's employers and workers with access to a wide range of services and employment and regulatory information around the clock. The Web site—www.dol.gov—provides multiple ways to get information on employment laws and DOL programs, prioritizes access to resources based on customer needs and enables users to find the information they need easily and quickly.

E-Mail Response Service

www.dol.gov/dol/contact/index.htm

DOL's coordinated e-mail response service allows employers and employees to ask questions about employment and regulatory issues electronically. By choosing among a list of topics or internal DOL agencies under the "Contact Us" section of the DOL Web site, users are ensured that their question will go to the appropriate office and that they will receive an answer in a timely manner.
